Prerequisite weakening

Strong prerequisite

- Strong prerequisites are prerequisites without which the the follow-up subject cannot be taken in the next semester, and the follow-up subject can only be registered for after the prerequisite subject has been fulfilled.
- Imagine a pyramid: in order to climb to the top of the pyramid, you have to climb its building blocks one by one in order to reach the top. This is also the case with the prerequisite: you cannot register for or fulfil the follow-up subject (the top of the pyramid) until you fulfil the prerequisite subject (the building blocks).
- If you try to register for a follow-up subject without having completed the prerequisite subject(s) or its administration, Neptun will automatically deregister you from the subject. You will find the prerequisites for the subjects in the your curriculum in the Prerequisites column, strong prerequisites are not accompanied by additional separate indications.

Prerequisite weakening

You can find the prerequisites of subjects in the Prerequisite column.

- Example: Object-Oriented Programming (IP-18fOEPROGEG) is a prerequisite for multiple subjects like Programming Technology, Telecommunication Networks, and Compilers.
- You must complete Object-oriented Programming (prerequisite) before you register for the follow-up subjects.
- Check your curriculum before the semester starts to see the prerequisites of the subjects you would like to register for.
- You can request an exemption from fulfilling the prerequisite beforehand via the prerequisite weakening request.

Prerequisite weakening request

- Requesting prerequisite weakening allows you to register for the strong prerequisite and the follow-up subject parallelly, in the same semester. This, however, also means that if you do not complete the prerequisite, you will not be able to sit for the exam of the follow-up subject. Even if you pass the exam of the follow-up subject, it will be invalidated and marked as 'Unfulfilled' in Neptun.
- Such a request can be submitted in the final semester of your studies with the approval of the lecturer and the head of department.
- You can submit a prerequisite weakening request if you can prove that you have knowledge of the prerequisite subject or pass it in the given semester by registering for the prerequisite and the follow-up subject simultaneously.
- Please note that if you have already registered for any of the subjects you request prerequisite weakening for, you will have to pay a fee.
- The fee will be transcribed by your administrator in Neptun.
